

Authorship commissions performed by UOC members of staff

If you are a member of UOC staff and have been given an authorship commission, payment will be made in the month following review of the payment; it will be added to your monthly salary as an item titled "Authorship".

Example:

Content delivered on 1 January
Payment added to February's salary

Content delivered on 30 January
Payment added to March's salary

NOTE: Payment for commissions delivered in July will be added to your September salary. Payment for work delivered in October or November will be added to your January salary the following year.
