

The perfect ebook

The UOC Library has a collection of over 300,000 ebooks
Many of them form part of the university's learning resources

Each publisher sets their own terms and conditions for how they can be used.

At the UOC, we work hard to offer you

the best reading experience possible

Where can you find them?

In the Library

In the classrooms

From a direct link

With your Virtual Campus username and password.

With a personal code

You'll be sent the code to your UOC email address.

All of it?

Can you print it off?

Is it accessible?

Can you use it forever?

The perfect ebook checklist

Can you download it?

Can you underline text or add notes?

Keep it so you can read it whenever you need.

Use text to speech, or change the contrast and text size.

Personalize your reading experience with additional features.

Read it whenever you want, even without an internet connection.

More info here:
About the UOC's ebooks

