

What you can expect to find in our online Library

177
platforms

82,000
journals

100,000
books

How are they accessed?

Total downloads
3,800,000

Total searches
1,000,000

Platform ranking

These are the online platforms that saw the highest download numbers in 2019.

1 ProQuest Ebook Central

More than 1,000 trusted, multidisciplinary titles for reading online or downloading.

6 Aranzadi

A website containing national, regional and European legislation and other legal texts.

2 Safari Tech Books Online

A collection of e-books, articles, case studies, video tutorials and audiovisual courses on computing, technology and web design.

7 La ley

One of the most advanced platforms for legal professionals containing legislation, jurisprudence and other suggested reading.

3 QMementos

Complete, practical and rigorous analyses of various branches of the law such as financial, accounting, social or commercial law.

8 Springerlink

One of the world's most comprehensive online collections of scientific, technological and medical journals, books and reference works.

4 El Derecho

A system of legal documentation with national, international, and European legislation and other legal texts.

9 Elsevier ScienceDirect

Their formula for success combines prestigious authors and peer-reviewed content about medicine, science and technology.

5 Vlex

A legal database that integrates management tools and legal analysis into one comprehensive platform.

10 Wiley Online Library

The platform, whose slogan reads "Today's research, tomorrow's innovation", contains a collection of multidisciplinary e-books and e-journals.